Docket # WT 04-435

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing to state my opposition to lifting the ban on cellular telephones on airborne aircraft. Human beings (Americans in particular) are absolutely obnoxious when talking on cell phones --- they are unaware of everyone in their immediate vicinity. I cannot imagine flying with unthinking, uncaring passengers who have been given free rein to invade my peace and quiet while flying. Please do not lift this ban!

Sincerely,

Paul McDaniel
